Two simple ways to place a charitable gift in your will:

Residual bequest:

You can name the residue of your Estate in whole or as a proportion using percentages. The residue is what remains after taxes, debts, expenses and your heirs have received their specific gifts or proportion. An advantage is that as your circumstances change, your will does not have to be altered, as the proportion remains the same.

Sample wording: "I bequeath the residue of my estate (or _____% of the residue of my estate) to Canadian Blood Services."

Please confirm the address as: Canadian Blood Services, Attn: Philanthropy Department, 1800 Alta Vista Dr., Ottawa, ON, K1G 4J5

Specific bequest:

Another way is to name a specific amount.

Sample wording: "I give $_____ to support the work of Canadian Blood Services."

Please confirm the address as: Canadian Blood Services, Attn: Philanthropy Department, 1800 Alta Vista Dr., Ottawa, ON, K1G 4J5

For a specific designation:

If you wish to designate your gift to support a specific Canadian Blood Services program or location, we recommend the following wording to keep flexibility should that program or location no longer be in existence at the time the bequest is realized:

“If through the passage of time, a designated Canadian Blood Services program is no longer in place, I give permission to alter the terms of my will to adhere as closely as possible to my original wishes; or in the event that this is not possible, please direct my gift to the area of greatest need.”
