

Philanthropy/Jack.org

There are many ways to give and even more reasons. Here's how you can activate your philanthropy:

- Make a multi-year or one-time cash gift
- Leave a gift in your will
- Give the gift of Stock and Securities
- Life insurance policy or RRSP
- Become a monthly donor

If you'd like to start a conversation about your philanthropy and what it means for the greater good and youth mental health, kindly contact the philanthropy team directly:

Legacy Giving.

Support youth mental health today and tomorrow

- A legacy gift is a way to honour a cause meaningful to you, while also enjoying the tax benefit of a charitable donation. A legacy gift can also be referred to as a planned gift, a bequest, a gift of tomorrow, and it all means the same thing: leaving a gift in your will to Jack.org. This gift can be in the form of cash, stocks, securities, real estate or insurance. Gifting your securities means reducing your capital gains taxes by 100%.
- Not only will a planned gift to Jack.org be supporting a network of inspiring young leaders, but your estate will receive a tax credit for the full value of your gift, reducing their tax burden in the filing of your estate tax return.
- By choosing to make a philanthropic gift to Jack.org, you will fuel thousands of young leaders, whose efforts will impact generations. When you improve the health and capacity of young people, you strengthen the future for Canada. Your gift helps ensure that Jack.org's work reaches millions of young people, from all walks of life.
- Progress takes action. Now more than ever, we need to make sure that we're moving forward. And your support allows us to take quick action to respond to the evolving needs of youth, today and tomorrow.
