How your gift will make a difference...

Celebrate our 145th anniversary together! "Teach Art to Everyone" as our motto and vision encourages innovative educational programming in visual arts that is accessible and affordable for all. As a registered charitable organization, we rely on your support for future artists to come.

Bursary & Outreach Programs

The Ottawa School of Art is dedicated to providing free, community based visual art classes to children and youth who often face difficult economic or social circumstances, and have limited access to the many benefits of a structured creative environment.

We provide financial support for students who are unable to afford the full cost of a course through our bursary program. These activities reflect the school's commitment to supplement costs of a course for students.
